Dear Family and Friends,

Thank you so much for praying for us this month. We appreciate it so much. God is working in a special way. In the near future we have some exciting news to tell you all about, Lord willing. Please pray for safety for us. We need God's help and protection in a special way.

News from a foreign land: This month we would like you to meet a special lady. Her name is Guy and she is in her 70's. Guy started coming to church a couple of months ago. Guy's parents both died when she was a child. Guy grew up in a Catholic children's home. She has no family, just a close friend and they started coming to church together. Recently, Guy has not been feeling well. Guy's friend came to church at the beginning of the month and told us that Guy was in the hospital. The next week her friend came back and told us that Guy would be coming home the next day. Guy's friend told us that the doctor told them that Guy has lung cancer. So basically, they are sending Guy home to die, if God does not intervene. From the time Guy started coming to church, she never got saved. Guy came home on Monday; on Tuesday evening we went to visit her. Visibly Guy had changed since we had seen her last. We talked with her and cared for her. We asked Guy if she would like anything special and she said no. Then we talked to Guy about her soul and Jesus. We gave her the gospel very carefully. Then at the end Guy bowed her head and asked Jesus to forgive her of her sins. Glory to God in the Highest!!! Please pray for Guy. Thank you so much!
