Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 John 3:16

1 May 2019

Dear Family and Friends,

God is and has been so good to us here this month. This past month we celebrated the Passover and the Thai new year. It is summer here and school is out until the middle of May. This month on the 12th, the King will be coronated. This will start a very important time here in Thailand.

News from a foreign land: The military teaches troops to always be prepared. This practice translates over into the Christian life also. There are a lot of things we can not be prepared for and need to lean on God for His help. When we go out in public, we always have tracts with us. You never know when opportunity will arise to talk to folks. This past month, we had to go and pay our internet bill. While at the store were talking to people and passing out tracts. As we were leaving the store, we gave this lady a tract. She looked at the cover and wanted to talk with us. Her name is Pawn. She lives here in Chiang Mai. In the past she lived in Bangkok. She told us that she hoped she would go to heaven. She asked us what kind of church we were. We told her Baptist. Pawn then told us that she went to a Baptist church in Bangkok. We asked her if she ever got saved in Bangkok and she said that she was sure she did. We took this opportunity to give here some assurance verses and care for her. When we parted ways, she was comforted, and we were excited. This situation does not happen very much here. We thank God for letting us meet Pawn!

Thank you for praying for us and we appreciate your continued prayers! We need them desperately.
