Dear Supporting Churches and Praying Friends,

“O give thanks unto the LORD, for He is good: for His mercy endureth for ever” (Ps. 106:1). The Lord is good, blessing and delivering us, neither of which we deserve. He is ever merciful. That is cause for great thanks. The church is His, men’s souls are His, and the work in men’s hearts is His. God is good! He deserves all the glory.

We praise the Lord for Robyn’s salvation. She has demonstrated fruits of repentance and shows a genuine desire to follow the Lord. She has been meeting with Cathy for discipleship. Her baptism is planned for mid-November. A couple Sundays ago, Robyn’s mom attended and stayed through the potluck and afternoon service. She enjoyed the time and said she would be back. Praise the Lord for His work in people’s hearts to draw them to salvation!

We continue to evangelize door-to-door. Dylan has been going with me on Tuesdays, and he is beginning to preach the gospel at the door. God has been giving us doors of utterance. Yesterday, Cathy and I had an excellent conversation with Tyler. Romans 10:5-8 dealt with his strongholds. As a group, we continue our canvassing efforts in Medford. I thank the Lord for the people’s desire to sow the seed.

One of our families (Abs and Cindy) started homeschooling this fall. It is a big transition for them, but the benefits over the public school are great. Cathy spent time helping them get started. She and I meet with their girls on Friday mornings for tutoring. Every step counts.

This summer we began teaching a parenting class every other week. Each lesson has had an eye-opening verse or principle. It is building the foundation. What a blessing to see parents change, and then to see those effects in their children’s life. In Sunday school, I am teaching Baptist History. Sunday AM and PM I am preaching on the Bible itself—Psalm 19 and the Superiority of the King James Bible. I want our people to know why we are Baptists, why we are King James, and what our response must be to the Word of God.

Cathy’s mom has improved greatly from her stroke in July. Thank you for your prayers. May the Lord bless you all as you continue to serve Him.

By His Grace,

Dave and Cathy Sutton
